

Family and Friends

Celebrating People

People speak different languages and have different customs and values. These differences make people special and make it exciting to be a member of a community, a group, or a team. Explore cultural differences with this badge.

1. Conduct Yourself?

The Girl Scout Promise and Law is a code of conduct (way of acting). Develop your own code of conduct for relating to other people. You should have at least five guidelines in your code. Live by your code for one week. Was it easy or hard to do so?

2. Who are They?

Imagine that you are a visitor from another part of the universe. No one on your home planet knows about Earth and you must make a report. How would you answer these questions in your report?

- What are the common characteristics of people who live on this planet?
- What activities do they enjoy?
- What are their beliefs, and what things are most important to them?
- How do they treat their planet?

3. One Big Family

Make a “Human Family” collage, poster, display, or booklet. Include photos of people from as many different places around the world as you can.

4. Peace on Earth

Find out about people who are “peacemakers.” Identify three people who work for human rights, world peace, or tolerance. Pick one person to learn more about, and share your findings with others.

5. Reach Out

Watch the news for one week. Look for instances of discrimination or violence against people of other races, religions, or cultures. Discuss with your friends or family what communities can do to combat prejudice.

6. It’s a Pleasure

Learn four different meeting and greeting customs from around the world and practice them with friends and family.

This badge can be found in the Junior Girl Scout Badgebook, page 44. This text has been reproduced with permission from Girl Scouts of the USA—this document may not be copied or reproduced in any way.